NEW TESTIMONIALS
ON THE
EFFICACY OF THE REMEDIES
OF
GRIMAULT AND CO.,
PHARMACEUTICAL CHEMISTS,
PARIS : 8, RUE VIVIENNE 8 PARIS.

DISEASES OF THE CHEST CURED.

—Eight patients affected with Phthisis pulmonalis in its first stage, treated by GRIMAULT'S SYRUP OF HYPOPHOSPHITE OF LIME during a period varying between six weeks and four months, are so well recovered at the present time that there is no possibility to witness the presence of tubercles in their lungs; the cure reckons now two years.—Vienna Medical Gazette, Austria.

GRIMAULT & CO.'S MATICO CAPSULES AND INJECTION.

Renowned Physicians prescribe GRIMAULT'S Matico as the most active and at the same time the most inoffensive remedy in the treatment of ACUTE and CHRONIC DISEASES. It has not, like COPAIBA, the inconvenience of giving NAUSEAS. The Injection is used in recent, and the Capsules in the more chronic cases.

TO YOUNG MOTHERS.

—My breasts were losing daily the allowance required to nurse my baby, who was falling away by the eye, and I found myself in the sad alternative either of weaning him at a season too dangerous for his health, or to see him dwelling away from want of food. On this emergency I heard of DUSART'S SYRUP OF LACTOPHOSPHATE OF LIME, which I took. What was not my delight seeing in a short time my breast restored to a plentiful secretion, and my baby improve in strength and health. I owe this public testimony to the inventor of this precious medicine.

MRS. LOUNGER, Winchester.

ASTHMA CURED.

—For a long time past I was suffering from the breathing organs, when the idea occurred to me of using GRIMAULT & CO.'S INDIAN CIGARETTES, which procured me so great a relief that they have become indispensable to my existence.

S. SANTIAGO, Malaga.

SICK HEADACHE! NEURALGIA!

—GRIMAULT and Co.'s GUARANA owes its curative virtues to the great quantity of Caffein which it contains. Dr. Wilks, of the Guy's Hospital, declares in the BRITISH MEDICAL JOURNAL that the GUARANA acts "like a charm."

Beware of counterfeits! The genuine preparations of GRIMAULT & Co., bear a stamp with their Trade Mark and the seal of the French Government.

SPARKLING VIVONE.

THIS fascinating beverage has, since its introduction eighteen months ago, proved a blessing to myriads of consumers. Fever patients say that the inventor must have been one of themselves to have been able to gauge their yearnings so accurately, and that, but for Vivone, they could never have pulled through. Intelligent critics reflect with surprise that they once scoffed at a "wine without alcohol," and now cheerfully endorse the inventor's prospectus. The superiority of Vivone as a beverage is admitted on all hands.

The Sheffield Steel, of which the blades are manufactured, is of the very best quality, and the fine ivory handles are in the most perfect style of manufacture.

COMMERCIAL INTELLIGENCE

TUESDAY EVENING, OCT. 10.

AN advance of ⅛ in Consols, bringing the quotation up to 101⅛, is given in yesterday's London telegram, but not only is there nothing apparent on the face of things to account for such an important movement, but there is no change in other stocks, whilst Indian Exchange Bank shares are 10s. weaker all round. The latter drop is no doubt associated with the existing state of the Exchange market, which is unquestionably full of doubt at the moment.

In the General Produce markets the only alteration of any kind is a partial advance of 6d. in Calcutta Linseed. Seeds otherwise are as previously quoted, as also wheat.

COTTON in Liverpool yesterday closed, Reuter says, with a hardening tendency, the day's sales being estimated at 12,000 bales, of which 1,500 were Surata. At the same time, it is difficult to reconcile this report with the fact that Spot Cotton is unchanged in value all round and Americans to arrive 3-64d. lower. In London G. F. Tinnevelly is quoted 1 16d., and in Havre Fair and G. F. Omra 1 franc lower. In New York yesterday prices were unchanged both for ready Cotton and Futures. The receipts at the U. S. ports give the following comparisons:—

For the two days	50,000	42,000	34,000
,, ,, three ,, ...	71,000	76,000	65,000
Since 1st September	545,000	667,000	754,000

EXCHANGE this morning opened at yesterday's closing rates, but a weaker feeling immediately set in, and during the day a decline of 1-32d. has been fully estab ished. Of ready Mercantile Paper the banks have been very willing buyers, but the amount offering even at the reduced level of 1s. 8¼d. has been small, and for future delivery an advance of 1-32d. per month after November has only brought out some 1½ to 2 lakhs in all. At the moment the tendency seems almost as weak as before the announcement of the new loan, the fact apparently being that considerable doubt exists as to whether the object of the loan is really, as was at first supposed, to obviate the necessity of accepting the current level of exchange for Council drafts. We have heard it distinctly advanced that other objects are in view, but it would be useless canvassing probabilities now, when to-morrow morning will most likely not only give us full particulars as to the reason of the loan, but also of the rate at which it has been taken up. This information will afford a clearer front again for estimating the future, and coupled with the result of to-morrow's biddings for Councils ought to show pretty clearly the line Government really intend to adopt. Closing quotations for ready bills to-day are:—

Bank Bills on demand	1s. 7 13-16d.	per rupee
Do. Telegraphic	1s. 7 23-32d.	,,
Do. 3 months' sight	1s. 8d.	,,
Credits, 3 ,, ,, ...	1s. 8¼d.	,,
Francs, 3 ,, ,, ...	2-13	,,

On Calcutta we still quote demand drafts at ⅛ premium, 60 days' sight at 7-16 discount.

GOVERNMENT PAPER is quiet with only a very small business doing, and rates are unchanged at, Fours, Rs. 99⅞; Fours-and-a-half, Rs. 106¾.

SHARES are firm all round. In Banks no alteration can be quoted. Press Companies are in request at hardening rates. Spinning and Weaving Mill shares are active, and again generally Rs. 5 to Rs. 10 higher.

COTTON continues practically a blank so far as new business for export is concerned. Sales of new crops continue to take place from time to time amongst native dealers, but we have not heard of anything among European firms. Prices are firm.

SEEDS and WHEAT are unchanged in value.

FREIGHTS keep very flat, and it seems doubtful whether we have yet seen the lowest point of the market. At 20s for weight and 21s 3d for measurement for Liverpool there is now a disposition on the part of shippers to go easy, and the P. and O. is booking cargo for Antwerp at 22s. 6d. or 2s. 6d. under what the Deerhil was fixed at yesterday.

PIECE-GOODS may be called steady with a moderate business passing at previous prices.

COALS met a more active demand, and business to some little extent has been done during the day.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 11, 1882.

MR. DANVERS' INDIAN RAILWAY REPORT

for the year 1881-82 came to hand by last mail. It is so far satisfactory that it shows a steady, if slow, progress in railway construction. During the year 1881, 726 miles of new railway were completed and opened for traffic. The total length now working is 9,875 miles; there are 2,000 miles more under construction. None of the extensions made during the past year affect Bombay, excepting 87 miles in Kathiawar. The new lines sanctioned during the year are, however, of vital interest to the Presidency: one is the Southern Mahratta Railway, which has of late attracted a good deal of attention here; the other is the extension of the Bhopal Railway to Cawnpore and to Gwalior. With regard to the former, it was only a question of making terms with, practically, the Western India Portuguese Railway Company to undertake under another name the whole Southern Mahratta system. But with regard to the latter, the concession ultimately granted to the G. I. P. Company was obtained only after a hard fight against the interest, so powerful at home, as well as with the Indian Government, of the East Indian Railway Company. One of the most important works undertaken in connection with Indian railways is the bridge over the Hooghly river at Calcutta;—a work the estimated cost of which is £275,000. Unfortunately, there is attached to this reasonable project a doubtful scheme of a railway from Calcutta to Diamond Harbour, and the construction of docks in the latter place. That this attempt to transfer the shipping trade of a port to a point thirty miles from its centre will prove abortive cannot be doubted for a moment by any merchant of experience, and the scheme has, we understand, but little or no support from the merchants of Calcutta. It is, however, one of those big operations which please the official mind, and as it is to be done at the public expense and with no individual responsibility, the taxpayer will probably object in vain. The revenue from the railways of the country increased from Rs. 6,14,70,430 in 1880 to Rs. 6,95,27,140 in 1881. There was a growth in both passengers and goods traffic; the number of passenger tickets—exclusive of season tickets—increasing from 48 millions to 52 millions; while the increase in goods was from 10½ millions of tons to 13 millions. However, this increase in passengers appears to have been owing to increased length of line, as the average traffic per mile per day in 1881 was 919 persons against 929 in 1880. The average traffic per mile per day in 1880 to 824 tons in 1881. At the same time the relative cost of working decreased. As heretofore, the first and second-class passengers contribute almost nothing to the number carried, the third and fourth classes constituting 97¾ per cent. of the whole.

Coming now to the earnings of the Indian railways, we find ourselves in a maze on account of the varied exchanges that are given, in which Mr. Danvers himself has manifestly become confused. To begin with, he places the capital of the East Indian Railway at £31,987,379, while Major Baring in his last Financial Statement puts it at £38,307,683. Mr. Danvers then converts the revenue into sterling at 1s., 10d. and makes the rate of profit £8. 17s. per cent.; but he goes on to say that if the exchange be taken at the rate of 2s., as is done in the other State lines, the rate would be £9. 14s. per cent., and this rate is given in the summary as the percentage earned! Anything more misleading than this statement it is difficult to conceive. It amounts to this, that if one does not calculate the loss by exchange on the capital of the East Indian Railway, and puts the earnings at the exchange of 2s., when they are worth only 1s. 8d., he can increase the apparent profit by 20 per cent. This would no doubt be true, and so would it be to state that if you multiplied the net percentage of earnings by two, you would double it; and there would be as much meaning in the one as in the other. To state that this enables one to compare accurately the net profit of the East Indian with those of the other State lines is entirely incorrect. The capital of the State lines is the rupee capital, though it is put in this report into sterling at a nominal exchange of 2s. The capital of the East Indian line, as stated by Mr. Danvers, is net sterling. To make any comparison, therefore, of the net percentage on capital earned on the East Indian and the other State lines with the earnings put into sterling at 2s., the capital of the East Indian must first be reduced to rupees at 1s. 8d., and thus it will stand as stated by Major Baring in his Financial Statement at £38,307,683 (Rs. 38,30,76,830). The net earnings of the East Indian would thus show a trifle under 8 per cent., which is its real percentage of earnings. (The rate estimated by Major Baring in his Statement was 8·12 per cent.) It seems, moreover, quite unnecessary to exaggerate the profits of this railway, as even 8 per cent. on so large a capital, this being the most costly railway in the country, is a remarkably good return. And yet in this whole report there is no hint of the true percentage of net earnings of the East Indian Railway for the year, based on the cost paid by the Indian Treasury for that railway. Every statement on the subject is exaggerated by taking an artificial exchange: and the same is true, though in a less degree, of the reported earnings of the guaranteed railways. We are told that the surplus profits earned by the guaranteed lines, was £652,195, of which £326,097 was paid to these companies, leaving Government an equivalent sum. But we have on another page a statement showing the "Results of working the Guaranteed Railways for the year." Here a very different picture is presented. The net revenue is put at £3,110,824, and the guaranteed interest at £3,272,651. Here is a net loss to the State of £161,827; and this is apart from the loss incurred by the Indian Treasury sending home the net earnings of the railways at certain contract rates of exchange. The loss in this alone may be placed at 9 per cent. on the guaranteed interest, or say about 30 lakhs of rupees. Instead, therefore, of receiving surplus profits to the extent of £326,097, from the guaranteed [illegible]ways, the country has apparently lost nearly half a crore this year by them. Again, all the percentages of earnings returned by the guaranteed railways are based on the contract rates of exchange: as such they represent what the company pay their shareholders under the contracts with Government, but not the percentages of profits earned, as is stated. There are many other statements in this report which call for criticism, which must be deferred to another time.

We notice that the present is the last report which will be issued by Mr. Danvers, who has had charge of this work now for 22 years. Mr. Danvers has done invaluable service to India in the matter of railways during his long period of service, and when in this country some years ago to make a general inspection of the work of which he had official supervision, he showed that he was possessed of broad views, and that he fully appreciated the necessity as well as the advantage of low rates to ensure the ultimate success of the railways and to meet the requirements of the country. In his annual reports, issued for so many successive years, Mr. Danvers has given a vast quantity of valuable information, which has been well-digested and admirably arranged. In his short retrospect of the changes in the railway communications of this country since he took up the work of preparing these reports in 1860, Mr. Danvers is able to point not only to increased figures in passengers and goods, but to a general moral and material improvement in the condition of the people. While admitting fully the debt we owe to Mr. Danvers for his labours in the past, we are glad that the reports on Indian railways are hereafter to be issued by the authorities here. The statements hitherto published in this country have avoided the errors into which the puzzling question of exchange has led writers at home. We shall be glad if these reports are hereafter given in the currency of the country, in which they will be not only more accurate, but more easily understood. If not, we trust that the figures will be so given that the country may know really what its railways are earning. To continue to put the net rupee earnings into sterling at an arbitrary rate of exchange, for the purpose of comparison with former years, is absurd, if an incorrect result is thereby shown. So far as we can judge, the net earnings of the State railways are correctly given; and they pay about 2¾ per cent. The statement that the guaranteed lines, with the East Indian, have paid 5 per cent. is, we fear, far from accurate. At any rate, the country has now guaranteed about 67 millions sterling of capital invested in these undertakings, and has invested its own funds to the extent of about 70 crores more. It is entitled, therefore, to know accurately what the direct result of these investments is. With the indirect results all must be satisfied.

HIS HIGHNESS THE THAKORE OF BHOWNUGGUR has contributed Rs. 1,000 towards the fund for the entertainment of the Indian troops on their return from Egypt. H. E. the Commander-in-Chief of Bombay has expressed to Mr. Nanabhoy Byramjee Jeejeebhoy and Captain Tennent his cordial approval of the scheme. A meeting of the committee will be held this afternoon at Byramjee Hall for the purpose of discussing ways and means. The Hon. Mr. Justice Bayley will preside. As will be seen in another column, our Simla correspondent telegraphs that the Indian cavalry are now marching on Suez, the two batteries have left Egypt, and orders have been issued for the speedy embarkation of the Indian troops.

WITH respect to the advisability of making provision for riders along the Breach Candy and Vellard-roads, referred to by us yesterday, we are informed that "such provision was made three years ago. A thick covering of sandstone for a width of 4 feet has been laid for some years past along one side of those roads. This was increased by the Municipal Commissioner after the rains of 1881 to 6 feet, for the greater benefit of equestrians. The sandstone washes into the side drains during the rains, but is renewed immediately the rains cease. Orders were issued to commence the covering in the beginning of October, and it is now to be laid. It would be a waste of money, however, to do so until all fear of a heavy downpour of rain ceases." This is satisfactory so far as it goes, but we hope the system which has been so prized in the case of two roads will be extended to others, to the great advantage of equestrians and horses.

MATHERAN.

(FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.)

OCTOBER 9.

THIS place is in rather a backward state. With the exception of one or two short thunder showers, the weather has been fine for the past week, but almost nothing has been done to put the hill in order for the visitors coming up this season. The Superintendent has not arrived yet, and permission is not given for the doing of anything in his absence. As a consequence of this, the roads on the top of the hill are in a deplorable condition, threatening tumbles to riders and sprained ankles to pedestrians. The road to Porcupine Point, for instance, resembles the dry bed of a water-course more than anything else, and the other paths are in a similar state of nature. Fortunately the ghaut road as far as the dasturi has been transferred to the charge of the Public Works Department, and has been put into good repair, so that there is no difficulty or danger in getting up. The Gymkhana is in no better condition than the roads. If it had been given over to workmen a week ago, it might now be quite ready. But nothing or next to nothing has been done, as there is no one here with authority to engage labourers for the purpose of rolling the courts. It is all overgrown with grass except the half of one lawn-tennis court, which has been cleared by the mali. Even if the work of reparation is commenced immediately, of which there seems to be no definite prospect, many days must elapse before the courts can be ready for use. One of the walls of the library has fallen down, and all the books have been removed to the Superintendent's Office. The roof had not been covered with fresh thatch for the monsoon, so the rain came through and spoiled the wall exposed to the west wind. There is, I believe, some project of enlarging the library, on account of which little care was taken for its preservation. The new bund seems to be a solid piece of workmanship, and is as ornamental as it is useful, for the waterfall and the fine sheet of water formed above are two new beauties added to the attractions of Matheran.

The visitors are gradually arriving, but the station has still rather an uninhabited look. The commander-in-Chief was expected at the end of last week, but has not yet come. Those who delay their coming miss the best of the Matheran year. For now, just after the rains have ceased, the woods are green and full of wild flowers, and the air is fresh and cool, while there is quite enough sun to dissipate fears of colds and fevers.

THE VICEREGAL COUNCIL.

(FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.)

SIMLA, OCT. 5.

THE Council met at Government House this morning. There were present:—His Excellency the Viceroy and Governor-General of India, K.G., G.M.S.I., G.M.I.E. (presiding), the Hon'bles the Lieutenant-Governor of the Punjab, K.C.S.I.; His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief, G.C.B., C.I.E.; Major-General T. F. Wilson, C.B., C.I.E.; T. C. Hope, C.S.I.; C. P. Ilbert; Sir S. C. Bayley, K.C.S.I., C.I.E.; C. H. T. Crosthwaite; W. C. Plowden; Major Evelyn Baring, R.A., C.S.I.; and J. Gibbs, C.S.I., C.I.E.

THE PUNJAB UNIVERSITY.

The Hon. Mr. Gibbs moved that the report of the Select Committee on the Bill to establish and incorporate the University of the Punjab be taken into consideration. The Hon'ble gentleman alluded in appreciative terms to the great assistance the Select Committee had derived from the help and advice of the Lieutenant-Governor of the Punjab in the movement, and to his evident desire to appoint and preserve a separate Oriental Faculty in this seat of learning, without possibility of mistake, the great importance attached to oriental and vernacular studies on the constitution of the Punjab University.

Sir Charles Aitchison, in a somewhat lengthy speech, said he hoped the Bill would be passed at the present meeting. He briefly alluded to the magnificent results attained by the native Chiefs and gentry of the Punjab, as evidenced by the financial condition of their University. He said that to Dr. Leitner and his colleagues, to whose efforts too much praise could not be given, much of this success was owing, they having striven to introduce a system of education, at once popular, and fulfilling the wishes of the people of the Punjab. Under the present constitution of the Senate the scheme of local self-government would to a certain extent be embodied; and Sir Charles Aitchison was of opinion that in spite of the opposition the movement had met with from certain quarters, it could not but be productive of great benefit to the province at large. It was to clauses 12 and 14 of the amended Bill that the Lieutenant-Governor attached the greatest importance. Quoting the Report, he said:—"At present the Oriental Department in the College is a section of the Faculty of Arts. We propose to empower the Senate to appoint a separate Oriental Faculty, thus asserting, beyond the possibility of mistake, on the constitution of the University, the prominent position assigned to oriental and vernacular studies. In the Oriental Faculty degrees would be granted as separate and distinct from degrees in the Faculty of Arts, as are the degrees in Law or Medicine. For the B. A. and M. A. degrees, English should be the obligatory instrument both of instruction and examination. For degrees in the Oriental Faculty, in which the vernacular would be the instrument of tuition and examination, we propose the titles of Bachelor, Master, and Doctor of Oriental Learning. We would leave the Senate, after the passing of the Bill, to devise precise and detailed rules prescribing the conditions and examinations required for such degrees; and such rules would be submitted, in due course, for the sanction of the Government of India. Here it is only necessary to say that the Oriental degrees would attest good general education, that they would be earned by a course resembling, as nearly as possible, the Arts course, and that they would differ from the ordinary B. A. and M. A. degrees because the Bachelors and Masters of Arts would be obliged to acquire their knowledge in English, while the Bachelors and Masters of Oriental Learning would not, necessarily, be required to know English at all. They might, of course, learn more or less English at their option. They might even be examined in English, as a classical language, should the Senate desire this. But the important point would be that the B.A. and M.A. would, and the Oriental degrees would not, guarantee English qualification. In this way we think that the wishes of the founders and benefactors of the Punjab University will be properly met, because degrees will be given to those who are always desired to students who do not know English; while the value to be attached to the degrees in the Oriental Faculty, thus distinguished by an appropriate designation, will not be confounded with that of degrees in Arts, and will be proportionate to the acquirements of the candidates who obtain them as prescribed in the standards of examination. The Lieutenant-Governor said that he thought the various clauses of the amended Bill embraced all points not hitherto fully provided for, and he had only to add that, in a very humble way, he had been connected with the institution of the movement, constituting the establishment of a Punjab College 17 years ago, and it was a great source of joy that now, in his capacity of Lieutenant-Governor of the Punjab, he was called upon to aid in placing the coping-stone upon an institution with which he had been connected in earlier years.

The Hon'ble Mr. Ilbert said that he did not wish the Bill to become law without saying a few words. The Lieutenant-Governor had called attention to the fact that the fourth and youngest Indian University possessed distinctive features, compared with other Indian Universities. It was a creation not of the State, but of the people, who seemed to have taken to heart the subject of education on a popular basis. Another distinctive feature was the stage in which it was now brought before the Council. They were called upon, not to establish a new University, but, as had been proposed, to place the existing one upon an institution that had been flourishing for years. This circumstance had had considerable weight with the Legislature, as, when framing the Bill shortly to become law, it was felt that existing rules must as far as possible be conformed to, and certain trusts respected. This, he thought, had been done, and that the Bill would meet the wishes of the promoters of the University as he felt certain. The specific objects of the new Bill were to constitute a teaching as well as an examining body, and to give prominence to oriental and vernacular teaching. With regard to the former, Mr. Ilbert thought that it was a matter for congratulation that the model one of the English Universities had been followed; and although there was always a certain risk that the examining staff would not be sufficiently independent of the teaching staff, he thought and hoped that the rules to be laid down would obviate any difficulty on that score in the present case. The speaker was of opinion that the day had not yet come when a knowledge of Physical Science could be imparted through the medium of the vernacular. He said that the want of the necessary books opposed a fatal objection to the prosecution of knowledge, for when the student had gone through his text-book, he was met by a blank wall, and further progress was barred. The textbooks prepared by Dr. Leitner and his colleagues had done excellent work in helping to create a national literature; and although the day when that literature could be used as a vehicle for imparting knowledge in the highest branches of science had not, in the speaker's opinion, yet arrived, its advance had been very materially hastened by the efforts of Dr. Leitner and his colleagues.

H. E. the Viceroy said that after the very full exposition of the Bill given by his hon'ble friends it would be unnecessary for him to enter upon the question before the Council. It was a question in which Mr. Ilbert had much interested, and with which he had fully sympathised, since his arrival in India. Two years ago, when he visited Lahore, several proposals connected with the University were received, and when determined to give the question the utmost attention. That the University, as now constituted, differed in some respects from the other Indian Universities, so far from considering a drawback, he hailed with satisfaction; and H. E. congratulated the Chiefs of the Punjab upon the efforts they had made in contributing so liberally towards the maintenance of their University. These voluntary gifts, from those who are the natural Chiefs and leaders in the Punjab, afforded him much satisfaction, and he hoped soon to have an opportunity of congratulating in person the promoters of the University upon the success achieved through these efforts.

The motion was put and agreed to.

The Hon'ble Mr. Gibbs then moved that the Bill, as amended, be passed.

The motion was put and agreed to.

ELEPHANTS PRESERVATION ACT.

The Hon'ble Mr. Gibbs moved for leave to introduce a Bill to amend the Elephants Preservation Act of 1879. The present provisions of the Act being insufficient to cover certain cases in which disputes had arisen as to whether the tusks of a slaughtered elephant belonged to Government or to private individuals, it was proposed to amend the Act so as to render the law clear on those points.

The motion was put and agreed to.

MISCELLANEOUS.

The Hon'ble Mr. Ilbert moved for leave to introduce a Bill to repeal Act No. 27 of 1854, a purely personal Act relating to the Nazim of Bengal.

The motion was put and agreed to.

The Hon'ble Sir S. Bayley moved that the Hon'ble Sir S. Bayley be added to the Select Committee on the Bill to amend the Indian Paper Currency Act of 1871. Also that the Bill be referred back to the Select Committee.

On a former occasion I entered very fully into the objects of this amendment Act, and it only remains for me to add that as British Burmah wants a paper currency, the Bill will be passed at an early date, without the Select Committee which the banks objected to, these Clauses being reserved, as I previously announced, for future consideration when the Council re-assembles at Calcutta.

MALARIOUS FEVER AT MAHIM.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE "BOMBAY GAZETTE."

SIR,—Fever of a malarious type has been raging here for the last three months, and not a single hut or house has escaped from its visit. It shows no sign of abatement. I have been residing here for the last twenty years, and have never seen so many stricken and prostrated by fever. In most cases it comes for a time, and after the lapse of a few weeks or so, it re-appears with greater severity. A screw must be loose somewhere, and it therefore behoves the Health Department to look after this district with greater vigilance.

The number of patients treated at the Charitable Dispensary at Upper Mahim is very large, situated as that institution is for the convenience of the poor residing at Sion, Daravee, Sewree, Matoongs, Wadala, Lower and Upper Mahim, and the neighbouring villages of Salsette. Doctor Nusserwanjee Jehangeer Lamna, who is in charge of it, has won golden opinions for his urbanity and humanity towards the suffering poor.

As the dispensary is purely a private benefaction from the Wadia family, and as the number of patients are day by day increasing, it is high time that Government should give a helping hand.

"THE FAILURE AND NARROW-MINDEDNESS OF MISSIONS."

TO THE EDITOR OF THE "BOMBAY GAZETTE."

SIR,—As you have been kind enough to give about a column of your valuable space to the Rev. Mr. Hume, I trust you will extend to me your liberality by allowing a little space in a corner of your widely circulated journal.

We are exceedingly thankful to the missionaries for the kind and benevolent intentions which their spokesman, Mr. Hume, says they have for us. But permit me to say that he is a little too hard upon their critics. He tells us that the missionaries come to India because Christ has ordered his followers:—"Go ye into all the world and preach the Gospel to every creature: I am the Way, the Truth, and the Life," &c., &c. But your correspondent seems to have conveniently forgotten that other verse which says:—"These twelve Jesus sent forth, and commanded them, saying, Go not into the way of the Gentiles, and into any city of the Samaritans enter ye not." Referring to Webster's Dictionary, I find the meaning of the word "Gentile" to be "one of a gentile or non-Jewish nation; a worshipper of false gods; a heathen." We are further told by the same authority that the Hebrews included in that term "all the tribes of men who had not received the true faith, and were not circumcised," and further on:—"the Christians . . . imitated the Jews in giving the name Gentiles to all nations who were not Jews or Christians." It can therefore be safely asserted, without fear of contradiction, that the Hindoos are included among "Gentiles." But here is a distinct command that the Apostles are not to go "into the way of the Gentiles." How then does Mr. Hume reconcile this cont

THE EDUCATION COMMISSION AT MADRAS.

(FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.)

MADRAS, OCT. 10.

A great meeting is sitting in the Senate House to hear the evidence of the Hon'ble Justice Mutiswami Iyer before the Education Commission. The Hon'ble Justice has produced a scheme for the reconstruction of the system of primary education on the basis of the hitherto neglected indigenous schools. He has also produced a complete plan of an Education Act, section by section, which he considers absolutely necessary for the development of a really national system of education on the joint basis of private effort and State inspection. He has been several hours under cross-examination.

Monday and Tuesday were field days for indigenous education in Madras. Mr. Cecil Burney, of the Hertford College, Oxford, now principal of the Zamorins College, Calicut, attacked the department for its neglect of the indigenous schools and for its avowed hostility, under the late director to private effort. He declared its action was diametrically opposed to the principles of the despatches, that private effort had been largely deprived of the grants formerly made, and that indigenous schools had been neglected, starved, and checked. He brought to light a widespread system of indigenous female education in South-Eastern India, a system which had not received any attention or support from the department. He believed an Education Act was the only means of giving legal rights to private enterprise and of securing proper application of the Educational funds. At present the department was a rival school-master rather than an impartial State agency for the spread and inspection of national education.

Father Saint Cyr gave the result of forty-two years educational work in India. He graphically described the condition of indigenous instruction in 1842 and bore testimony both to the great number of purely native schools then all at work, and to the sound moral education they gave. He argued that the English had partially subverted these native agencies and urged a plan of reconstructing primary education on the basis of the surviving indigenous schools, but the department must accommodate its system to the education really desired by the people and not insist upon preconceived theories.

On Tuesday an overflowing audience assembled to hear evidence of the Honorable Justice Mutiswami, of the Madras High Court. He also urged the reconstruction of primary education on the basis of the neglected indigenous schools. He said "the village schools ought to be the indigenous schools." He strongly urged an Education Act, detailed its chief provisions, and suggested a plan which would divert the benevolent bequests of natives from mere religious ceremonies to educational endowments. He protested equally against the departmental idea that the indigenous pyal or veranda schools are worthless, and against missionary schools with their conversions, and the domestic disunion and sorrow which they involve. As regards colleges he thought their cost must be borne by the State until they were endowed by the people. This witness remained under cross-examination nearly the whole day.

In the early morning the Commission visit four institutions daily and hear evidence from eleven to six.

OUR Simla correspondent telegraphs:—"The latter portion of my telegraphic summary of the proceedings at the last meeting of the Legislative Council in passing the Punjaub University Bill is not, as might be inferred, owing to an error in punctuation, part of the Viceroy's speech but merely my own observations on the Bill. I make this correction as the word 'status' appearing therein has been objected to."

THE vacancy in the establishment of Judges in the North-West Provinces, caused by the retirement of Mr. H. G. Keene, will, the Pioneer understands, be filled by Mr. J. C. Leupolt, at present Officiating Judge of Allahabad.

THE Salvationists understand how to keep up a sensation. "Major" Tucker telegraphed to Calcutta about the Framjee Cowasjee Institute meeting the other evening:—"Framjee Hall was crowded last night, and hundreds were unable to gain admission. In addition to admission fees, one hundred rupees collection was taken. Natives gave cheerfully. Very successful meeting."

THE following were the balances held in cash in the Civil Treasuries of the Government of India and at credit of Government in the Presidency Banks and their branches on the last day of September:—1880, Rs. 11,81,40,000; 1881, Rs. 12,87,20,000; 1882, Rs. 12,73,90,000.

ON the subject of the "wigging" administered to Sir James Ferguson's Government by Lord Ripon's latest Local Self-government Resolution, the Pioneer writes:—"The sharp rebuke conveyed to the Government of Bombay by the Government of India's despatch on the local self-government question has certainly been deserved. As we pointed out at the time of its appearance, the Bombay Resolution was a mere repudiation of the leading idea embodied in the policy of the Supreme Government. How far the attitude taken up was due to the presidential vanity of Bombay, prompting a desire to show the world that Bombay does what it likes, not what it is told; how far it arose from an intellectual failure to comprehend the design of the Government of India, can only be conjectured. Certain it is, at any rate, that action taken on the lines of the Bombay Resolution would have been worse than useless; and unless the Government of India had been content to see its deliberate intentions neutralised by provincial obstruction, the very unusual course now taken was inevitable. It remains to be seen whether the Bombay Government will be large-minded enough to acknowledge its mistake and accept, even though late in the day, the only rôle which it is possible for a subordinate Administration to play; or whether, by persevering in its attempt to thwart the designs of the Supreme Government, it will precipitate a comprehensive treatment of those administrative embarrassments to which the anomalous organization of the minor Presidencies so frequently gives rise."

MR. A. B. LARKINS, an officer of the Telegraph Department, proceeds shortly from Calcutta accompanied by about four hundred coolies, boatmen, &c., to Rangoon and Moulmein, on his way to Tavoy, whence it is intended to commence the construction of a telegraph connecting British Burmah with Bangkok, the capital of Siam. The party will have to strike out into an almost unexplored country through very dense jungles. The carrying out of the object of the expedition, however, will confer great benefit on India, in giving her direct telegraphic communication with Siam. Mr. Larkins, who is in charge of the party, and who will conduct its operations, is an Officiating Superintendent of Telegraphs. He possesses considerable experience in line-constructing work in British Burmah, and has already explored a great part of the country through which the intended new line is to be laid, having on one occasion penetrated to a point in Siamese territory within two days' march of Bangkok.

THE Secretary of State has forwarded a letter from the Gilchrist Trustees announcing their intention of substituting one scholarship annually for India at £150 a year, tenable for four years, and conditionally for five, in place of the two scholarships of £100 a year hitherto offered. This alteration has been made in consequence of the very limited competition for the two scholarships that has arisen hitherto.

THESE are essentially days of clubs and combinations, but we have not before come across such an unique notion as that ventilated by an enterprising correspondent, "Vox," in a letter to the Allahabad paper. "Vox" is filled with a spirit of bitterness against the P. and O. Company, and in his wrath he has conceived a curious plan of opposition. He wonders that "some attempt has never been made by the crowds of people who go home in almost every month of the year to charter a vessel for the voyage to, say, Brindisi and back again. For instance, if 40 people clubbed together, it appears to me it would be a matter of no difficulty to secure a steamer equal in every respect to the P. and O., but with better table and better speed, for the homeward voyage for, say, Rs. 14,000, in addition to any cargo she might secure. This would be Rs. 350 each from Bombay, and, of course, the vessel would be bound to do the voyage in a certain time." If we had half the go of our American cousins, "Vox" thinks, something in this direction would have been done years ago. The old sore point of the small difference in the fares between London and Bombay and London and Australia is reverted to. It is certainly anomalous that the P. and O. Co.'s fare to Sydney or Melbourne from London should be only £70, while to Bombay it is £68—the distance traversed in the one case being about 12,000 miles, and in the other 6,000. "Vox" remarks:—"If it pays to carry a passenger 6,000 miles for £2, what an enormous profit must be made out of the poor Anglo-Indian?" But in calling the P. and O. ships "tubs," the correspondent goes a little wide of the mark. It is not with the accommodation or the speed of the P. and O. ships that fault is found so much. The real sting is found in the tail of the letter:—"I know as a fact that the P. and O. Company remonstrated with the other steam lines not long ago for reducing their fares. There was quite enough traffic for all, it was stated, and to reduce the fares was simply throwing money away. If we Anglo-Indians would only agitate and treat the P. and O. as they deserve to be treated, we should perhaps get home for £30 and have our letters in a fortnight."

A STRIKING proof of the value of irrigation in India is afforded by the North-West Provinces agricultural report on the rabi crops for the half-year ending June 30. It appears that, except in Kumaon, the Dun, and the Benares Division, there was very little rain after the end of August, 1881, and this deficiency was followed in the places where it was most pronounced by an almost complete failure of the October rains. The spring crops had, in consequence, to be sown on irrigation in nearly every part of the provinces. The winter rains were very poor indeed, and practically the whole harvest had to be raised on artificial irrigation. The outturn was surprisingly high: wheat, barley, arhar, rape-seed, and mustard-seed averaging a 13-anna crop; while sugarcane and poppy yielded one of 13 annas. The conclusion drawn by the Director of Agriculture is that the provinces are but little dependent upon the winter rains, and that where irrigation is most general, as in Rae Bareli, average crops can be secured under apparently adverse circumstances.

A "SLIGHT electoral row" occurred at Colon, Panama, recently. The leaders of the defeated party, headed by a man named Preston, made a demonstration in the evening. The demonstration took the form of indiscriminate revolver-firing in the streets. In the course of the firing two canoe men, who took no interest whatever in political matters, were shot dead. The national troops, of whom there were a hundred in the city, turned out when matters assumed an alarming aspect. Preston and his friends were not prepared for this movement, which cut short their revolver practice; and they retired to the woods in great disgust, where, by latest accounts, they still remained, and where the peaceable portion of the inhabitants hoped they would remain; for Preston is described as being "a most meddlesome fellow," always ready with his revolver on the slightest provocation, and of a very excitable temperament. The principal object of the movement, which failed owing to the presence of the Government troops, was to keep Dr. Nunez from entering into power as President, to which office he was elected some months ago. Preston particularly dislikes Dr. Nunez.

AN unpleasant sensation has been caused in Choctaw County, Alabama, by the discovery of a bundle of papers disclosing a well-organized plot among the negroes to massacre the white population. A "quiet meeting" of the citizens of Mount Sterling and Butler was held on the following day to consider the best mode of suppressing the intended outbreak. It was decided to arrest the ringleaders—seven in number—to whom had been assigned the duties of leading squads to Butler, Mount Sterling, Desotoville, and other towns for the purpose of killing all the whites at each place Their arrest was effected without disturbance or bloodshed, and a mass meeting was called to determine on the fate of the prisoners. The meeting brought together about seven hundred men (among whom were about one hundred and fifty negroes), who after hearing the papers read, decided by an almost unanimous vote that Jack Turner, one of the prisoners, was a turbulent and dangerous character, a regular firebrand in the community, and must be immediately hanged. On the same afternoon Jack Turner was accordingly hanged, in the presence of the assembled multitude. The other prisoners, by latest accounts, were still in gaol, "to await further developments."

A PLAN has been brought forward for the purpose of promoting navigation on the Syr Darya, or Jaxartes. Encouraged, no doubt, by the appointment of General Tchernaieff, a few Russian merchants propose to establish a company for placing on the Syr Darya a certain number of river steamers. These would be adapted for the conveyance of passengers as well as of merchandise; and a sufficient traffic to make the undertaking a pecuniary success is confidently expected. It is proposed that these steamers should ply between Kazala or Kazalinsk, near the mouth of the river and the town of Khodjent, a place of importance on the main road between Ferghana and Samarcand. The St. James's Gazette remarks that as the river is known to be navigable, and as it forms the most direct and convenient road to Turkestan, this scheme may meet with considerable success; but it will do so at the cost of a corresponding injury to the prospects of a Central Asian railway.

MILITARY NEWS.

7/1 R. A. embarked at Suez on the 8th instant for Bombay in the Government Transport steamers Galatia and Armenia, which are to arrive at Bombay on or about the 21st instant. On arrival the battery will be disembarked and despatched by rail to Deolalee en route to Rawulpindee. The strength of the battery is 5 officers, 108 European men, 158 native men, 100 followers, 10 horses, and 220 mules.

THE Government of India have sanctioned the relief of No. 9 Battery, 1st Brigade, Scottish Division, at Quetta, by No. 7 Battery, 1st Brigade, Cinque Ports Division, from Bombay. The battery at Quetta will remain there until relieved.

THE 31st Madras Native Infantry left Aden on the 28th September for Bombay, where the regiment will disembark, but the transports Asia and Chapra, in which the corps will arrive, will go afterwards to Madras for discharge.

COLONEL W. T. CHITTY, Controller of Military Accounts, Bengal, leaves India in April next. His departure gives a step to all officers junior to him in the Military Accounts Department, and Major H. G. Pritchard, thereupon, will be promoted to the departmental rank of Controller.

THE Western India Rifle Association branch meeting at Poona is to be held between the 16th and 19th instant, on the W. I. R. A. range, Wanowrie. Colonel Laughton, we see, has undertaken the duties of Local Secretary. If Captain Proudfoot will act as Local Secretary, some of the Bombay Volunteers might like to shoot at Coorla, as the prospectus this year is an exceptionally good one, and there is to be no "rateable reduction," such as has rendered the W. I. R. A. prizes not worth winning for the last two or three years. Branch meetings may be held at any station between now and the middle of December; but there must be at least five members of the Association to shoot through the meeting.

ANOTHER rifle match for which the Volunteers are eligible to compete this month is the Southern India Volunteer Contest, 500 and 600 yards, which is open till the 20th instant. For this match also there must be five bonâ fide competitors. The B. V. R. has generally shown up well in the prize list of this match, which is open to Volunteers throughout India; and we should be glad to see the honour of the Corps equally well upheld this year.

CAPTAIN BREBNER, of the Marine Department, and of the B. V. R., will return from Kurrachee shortly, on the arrival of Captain Parker, the permanent Kurrachee Harbour Master, from England, and will, we suppose, rejoin his old Company—A Company—Bombay Volunteer Corps. During his stay in Kurrachee Captain Brebner has commanded the Manora Company of the Sind Volunteer Rifles.

CAPTAIN F. R. BEGBIE, 1st Sikh Infantry, has been nominated Adjutant of the 1st Punjab Volunteers. Captain Goldney, who succeeded Major Bailey as Adjutant of both the 1st and 2nd Corps, will retain the Adjutancy of the Simla Volunteers only.

SWORD BAYONETS, in lieu of the old short bayonets, are being issued to the Calcutta Volunteer Rifles this season. The Mounted Company of this volunteer regiment now has about a hundred members on its roll. It will probably have the honour of escorting His Excellency the Viceroy from Howrah terminus to Government House on his arrival in Calcutta.

CAPTAIN M. W. SAUNDERS, No. 4 Battery 1st Brigade, North Irish Division, having completed the special duties on which he was employed at Simla, rejoins his battery at Rangoon.

THE step in the 19th Bengal Lancers, vice Biscoe, seconded, has been given in the regiment, promoting Majors Abbott and Bruce and Captain Young.

SURGEON G. A. EMERSON has been transferred from Multan to Calcutta for the officiating medical charge of the 17th N.I.

A GRIEVANCE of which the younger officers of the Army in India have certainly some right to complain has been brought to the notice of a contemporary. The Government has inherited, from the liberality of the old Court of Directors of the East India Company, the good principle of stimulating studies in Persian and other Oriental languages by the gift to successful candidates of small money prizes, sufficient to recoup them for the expenses incurred in the salaries of Munshis and the purchase of books. But this benevolent intention is now entirely frustrated by the distances which candidates have to travel before they can find a Board to which to present themselves for examination. In one recent instance, a lieutenant of a distinguished Royal Regiment had to perform, in this undertaking, the following serious pilgrimage:—Lucknow to Calcutta, and back, over 1,400 miles; Meerut to Lahore, and back 600; and Meerut to Allahabad, and back, over 800; or say, in all, more than a third of the earth's diameter. The cost of the journeys was about Rs. 750.

A ROYAL WARRANT has just been issued under the provisions of which the Secretary of State may employ officers on the retired lists of the departments of the Army, "for such conditions as he shall from time to time determine," provided that no officer thus employed is over sixty-five years of age. Retired officers, while holding such appointments, will cease to draw retired pay, but will receive a consolidated salary, which must in no case exceed the retired pay they are entitled to by more than £150 a year, inclusive of all allowances but forage, when specially sanctioned.

BRIDLE-PATHS.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE "BOMBAY GAZETTE."

SIR,—I am glad to see you are urging on the Municipal Commissioner to lay down sand on one side of the roads for riding. Anyone returning from Poona must wonder why so little has been done here for equestrians. It is true we have the Kennedy Sea Face; but in the early mornings, with its plague of flies and thick fogs, it is anything but a pleasant place, and in the cold weather it is so dark after six o'clock that riding there is almost dangerous. We want a riding path of sand, say 6 to 8 feet broad, laid all along the Queen's road alongside of the burning ground wall, besides sand laid down round the west side of Malabar Hill along Breach Candy and over the Vellard. The expense would be trifling; and by increasing the facilities for riding, horse exercise would become still more popular than it is. Not a single monsoon passes without a number of horses being knocked up by the hard roads.

TELEGRAPHIC WEATHER REPORT.

SIMLA, Oct. 9.—The pressure is high at Kurrachee, and is rising in parts of Bombay, Central India, and Rajputana, but is falling elsewhere. The sky is cloudless or nearly so except in North Bengal and at Malegaon, Vizagapatam, and Thyetmyo. Reports from south of Gopalpore are wanting. The only rain reported to-day is ¾ inch at Deesa. Previously, ¾ inch fell at Poona.

MURDEROUS ASSAULTS.

A HINDOO named Balloo Crishna on Monday last secreted himself behind the staircase of a house in Nagpada Cross-lane, and on his cousin, named Ragee (woman), returning from the bazaar, he struck her on the head with a large knife, similar to that used by butchers, inflicting a deep wound on the left side of the head. He also inflicted superficial wounds. On the woman raising an alarm, he ran away down the lane about twenty-five yards. At the entrance of Mirza Ally Mahomed-street he met his nephew, a lad about six years of age, whom he threw down, and attempted to cut his throat, but was prevented by Ballee, the mother of the lad, who was at that time about two yards distant, engaged in drying some grain. While endeavouring to rescue her son, she was stabbed by Balloo Crishna on the left arm. She also received a severe cut on the index finger of the right hand. Balloo Crishna, during the scuffle that ensued between himself and Ballee, was seized by a Mahomedan, who, with the assistance of another man, secured the knife. On the arrival of the police the knife was handed over to them, and Balloo Crishna was given into custody. The women and the boy were at once removed to the J. J. Hospital for treatment.

Balloo Crishna was yesterday charged before Mr. W. Webb with having attempted to murder Ragee, woman, by striking her on the head with a knife. The case stands postponed for hearing to the 24th instant, to enable the Public Prosecutor to appear for the prosecution.

MUNICIPAL CASE WITHDRAWN.—The case of the Municipal Commissioner versus Goculdas Dewjee, which was set down for hearing yesterday before Mr. F. Kyan, was struck out, the parties not appearing. The defendant, who stood charged with making a false return of his property, had explained to the satisfaction of the Municipal Commissioner that the ground-rent paid to the Bombay Port Trust was not correctly shown, through a mistake, in the proper column of the return rendered by him for assessment purposes. The Commissioner consequently withdrew the charge against the defendant.

FATAL ACCIDENTS.—A coroner's inquest was held yesterday at the Goculdas Tejpal Hospital, on the body of Joaquim Cabral, aged seventeen years. Deceased was a topaz on board the steamship Zambesi, and died from the effects of injuries he sustained by an accidental fall into the hold of that vessel on the 25th ultimo. A verdict of accidental death was recorded.—Another inquest was held yesterday at Candywady, on the body of Muriano DeMiranda, aged thirty years, who died from the effects of injuries received on the 3rd instant, while at work at the Coorla Spinning and Weaving Mill. THE PERSIAN GULF CABLE.—The Indian Government s. s. Patrick Stewart will leave Kurrachee on Sunday for the Persian Gulf on "cable-repairing duty." POONA.—A correspondent writes:—The officers of the 1st Battalion Rifle Brigade, quartered at Poona and Ahmednagar, gave their annual ball in the Central Gymnasium, on the night of the 27th September. The dancing was in the wings of the building, and the excellent band of the corps discoursed sweet music until early morn. The arrangements, wines, attendance, and supper were all that could be desired. This is the last ball of the Poona season. It was expected that the Royal Engineers' ball would be the last, but it appears it is not to come off, as the use of the Council Hall for the occasion has been refused.—Pioneer.

There were crowds of people of the Khojah community who rushed on board the steamer for the purpose of rendering homage to the remains of the mother of so eminent an individual in their caste as H. H. the Aga's mother. The Henry Bolckow proceeded on her voyage up the Gulf yesterday (October 5). A great crowd of the Khojas assembled to witness the departure of the vessel.—Civil and Military Gazette.

SALUTING THE CHUDDER.

We give credit to Sir Garnet Wolseley for his foresight in securing the good will of the Egyptians by the simple act of permitting the British army in Egypt to salute the chudder. By one stroke of diplomacy he has done what an expenditure of millions failed to do before. He has indirectly convinced the Egyptians and the whole Mahomedan world that not only do the British intend to evacuate the land as soon as order is restored, but that they are prepared to honour the religion of the land and are sincere in their policy of non-interference. It is strange that the editor of the Guardian does not see this. If, as the Guardian says, the Mussulmans of Egypt are excitedly showing their fanatical zeal for their religion, it does not follow that the British should do the same. In fact, by his last action Sir Garnet has shamed them into silence.—Jam-e-Jamshed.

HIGH COURT.—OCTOBER 10.

(Before the Hon'ble Mr. Justice BAYLEY.)

JACOB ELIAS SASSOON AND OTHERS vs. GANESH CHEMONAJEE.

MR. ANDERSON, instructed by Messrs. Payne and Gilbert, for the plaintiffs, asked for a postponement till the first Tuesday in February next, as negotiations for a settlement were going on, and the defendant had paid half the amount of the claim. The application was granted.

HORMUSJEE MUNCHERJEE CAMA vs. HARICHUND NARRONJEE AND OTHERS.

MR. MANKER, instructed by Mr. Venayek Harichund, for the defendants, admitted the claim, saying that Rs. 270 had been paid on account of the debt and Rs. 150 as costs. They expected to receive a dividend of Rs. 500 in a few days, out of which they would pay the balance; and the learned counsel therefore asked for a postponement. Mr. Vicajee, instructed by Messrs. Ardasir and Hormusjee, for the plaintiff, opposed the application for a postponement. The claim was proved, and a decree was given for plaintiff for Rs. 1,575 less Rs. 270, with interest, and costs less Rs. 150.

HAJEE NOOR MAHOMED HAJEE JAKERIA vs. MOHSEIN BIN HOOSEIN AND OTHERS.

MR. RUSSELL, instructed by Messrs. Jefferson, Bhaishunker, and Dinshaw, for the plaintiff, said the suit was brought in respect of a bill of exchange drawn from Calcutta. The plaintiff's firm in Calcutta had disbursed moneys on account of a ship belonging to the original defendants, both of whom were now dead. The present defendants were the legal representatives of the late Jamadar Mohsein bin Abdoola, of Hyderabad. The bill of exchange was drawn in respect of the moneys disbursed by plaintiff's firm. A decree was given for plaintiff for Rs. 1,830, with interest and costs.

FAKIRJEE MERWANJEE vs. MAJOR-GENERAL HEWETT.

MR. SERJEANT ATKINSON, instructed by Messrs. Nanu and Hormusjee, for the plaintiff, said the suit was brought to recover Rs. 2,900 on three promissory notes executed by the defendant to Mr. Dinshaw Manockjee Petit. On the 14th ult. they were endorsed over by Mr. Dinshaw to the plaintiff, a clerk in the office of Messrs. Nanu and Hormusjee, for Rs. 1,400.

The judge said the defendant had filed his schedule, in which the claim was admitted.

The defendant, who appeared in person, admitted his indebtedness to Mr. Dinshaw Manockjee Petit, saying he did not know the plaintiff.

The claim was proved, and his Lordship gave a decree for plaintiff for Rs. 2,800, with interest and costs, with stay of execution against the person of the defendant.

GEORGE COALSWORTH vs. HASSUMBHOY VISRAM AND OTHERS.

THERE was no appearance for either party when the case was called on, and it was accordingly dismissed.

THE LATE MR. A. H. WADIA'S WILL.

THE Hon'ble Mr. Lang, Mr. Farran, and Mr. Pherozshaw Mehta, instructed by Messrs. Chalk and Walker, appeared for the applicants; and Mr. Kirkpatrick and Mr. Telang, instructed by Messrs. Cleveland, Little, and Nicholoson, appeared for the executors, for Meherbai, the widow, and the infant children.

Mr. Lang, in continuing his reply on behalf of the applicant Hormarjee, contended, on the authority of certain letters, that the testator had nothing further from his thoughts than the closing of the firm of B. and A. Hormarjee. In conversations with Mr. Cleveland at the end of April, and with Mr. Chalk at the end of March last, the testator distinctly gave out he had no intention whatever of closing the firm, although once or twice he asan old and expriened merchant, used, as regarded Hormarjee, a threat to close the business in the hope of making him more cautious in his exchange operations and Government paper business.

The judge said he was surprised that the testator did not put a stop at once to the speculation in Government paper, which gave him much trouble.

Mr. Lang said the testator himself had acquired his fortune by transactions other than those of his consignment business merely; he was fully aware of Hormarjee's transactions, although he had to warn him against getting into "cash" debentures. The commission of the Coorla mill was the most valuable asset of the firm, and in order to preserve it, the testator had made to Hormarjee the gift of the property of Jaffar Rahimtoola, a dyer. He was sentenced to nine months' rigorous imprisonment. one-fourth of Coorla mill shares. Up to March last the testator was proud of Hormarjee's business abilities, as he stated to Mr. Chalk even after the loss of Rs. 40,000 caused in connection with the new firm of Reifferscheid and Co. The gift of the Coorla shares had the double object of keeping up the firm and the valuable agency of the mill. The learned counsel submitted that it was very probable that the testator should make to Hormarjee the gift of the Coorla mill shares. The real ground of opposition to the will was that the eldest son got more than any of the other sons, who in England was a matter of common occurrence. Another ground of opposition was that Mrs. Ardasir's allowance had been reduced from its. 3,000 to Rs. 2,500 a month. That reduction was at the bottom of all the opposition to the probate; and if it had not been made, the learned counsel was sure the court would not have heard of the caveat. By the will of 1876 the allowance to Mrs. Ardasir had been fixed at Rs. 2,500 a month. She heard of it by some means or another. Mr. Cleveland interceded on her behalf, and with the greatest reluctance the testator was prevailed upon to raise the allowance to Rs. 3,000. The testator's wealth had not in 1882 increased beyond what it was in 1877; two of the sons and one of the daughters had left the house, thereby admitting of a reduction in the monthly expenses; and it was, the learned counsel argued, highly probable that the testator authorised the reduction of Mrs. Ardasir's allowance to Rs. 2,500 a month. It was perfectly clear even on Mrs. Ardasir's evidence that since 1878 or 1879 she had not been working for Nusserwanjee. In the will of 1879 the testator expressed how much Hormarjee's abilities had impressed him, and how great was the confidence he reposed in him, and how fully he trusted that his wishes would be carried out by Hormarjee. Nusserwanjee was also a man of business abilities, and the testator thought highly of him; but Nusserwanjee wanted to have the whole firm to himself. He knew that Hormarjee was a sharp young man of much natural ability, and he would not have him near his "throne." Nusserwanjee was a very obstinate man, and his obstinacy incurred the displeasure of his father. It was quite clear that undue influence to push Hormarjee on ceased in 1878; and that it was by his own ability and good management of business that he rose in his father's good opinion. Coming to the writing of the will, the learned counsel dwelt on the extreme improbability of the testator venturing to depart from his father's instructions. His position at the time was enviable. By the will of 1879 he had got two lakhs and a half; he had the sole control of the business and the mansion in Elphinstone-circle; he had the first inter

THE "BULL DOG'S HEAD" BRAND.
(BASS'S ALE AND GUINNESS'S STOUT.)

READ BROTHERS, of London, request purchasers of their Bott o Ale and Stout to ask for "THE D G'S HEAD BRAND," because another and totally distinct Bottler uses the figure of a Bull Dog, and thus two bottlings of entirely different character may both be called "BULL DOG."

The original "Bull Dog" mark is the registered property of READ BROTHERS, and their bottling still often goes by that name, but the title of "DOG'S H. AD BRAND" is theirs exclusively and is the only one that is protected by the injunction of the Lords Justices of England.

CARLTON WHISKEY.

THESE GRAND OLD SCOTCH WHISKIES are shipped only by RICHARD MATHEWS AND COMPANY, of London and Inverness, who are sole possessors of the Brand "CARLTON." They are distilled from the finest Highland Malt only, are in every respect equal to the best Cognac Brandy, and guaranteed to be entirely free from Fusil Oil or other noxious impurities.

The following Letter has been received from the Secretary of the "CARLTON" CLUB:—

CARLTON CLUB, Dec. 20, 1875.

Messrs. R. MATHEWS & COMPANY.

GENTLEMEN,—In reply to your inquiry as to whether the Whiskey you are supplying to this Club is approved by the Members, the best answer I can give is that the consumption of this Whiskey in the Club has GREATLY INCREASED since it has been supplied by your firm. There can be no doubt whatever about the Whiskey being MOST EXCELLENT. It is Old and Soft, and I may safely say that it is much approved by the Members.

Yours obediently,
W. GRIFFIN SUTTON, Secretary.

CAUTION.—It has come to the knowledge of the Shippers of the "CARLTON" WHISKIES, that the empty Bottles have been dishonestly refilled with the poisonous trash very often sold in India under the name of Whiskey, this is therefore to caution consumers to CAREFULLY EXAMINE the CORKS and CAPSULES to see they have not been tampered with; also that the Corks, Capsules, and Labels are branded with their Trade Mark.

ZOEDONE—Or those suffering from the enervating effects peculiar to the Indian climate.

ZOEDONE—NORMAN KERR, M.D., F.L.S., under date August 8, 1881, writes:—
"My good opinion of ZOEDONE as a social drink has been amply confirmed by further observation."

"Its properties are those of an agreeable effervescent tonic."

"Accept my sincere thanks for your idea of introducing ZOEDONE in India. I fear I cannot praise it enough. You know that a vast population of Her Majesty's subjects in India are Mahomedans, whose religion prohibits the use of wine or any other intoxicating liquor. Under such circumstances ZOEDONE is a boon and blessing to them. I think it is a health restoring, strengthening and nourishing beverage. From my own experience and from what I have ascertained from Medical men, I can certify that it is strictly non-alcoholic, and the very drink that the Indians generally and the Mussulmans particularly are in need of."
